A Legacy of Service & Excellence in Healthcare Education

Shri Ram Murti Smarak College of Nursing & Allied and Health Care Sciences, Unnao, is an institution of the Shri Ram Murti Smarak Trust — dedicated to shaping skilled, compassionate nursing and allied health care professionals for India's expanding healthcare sector.

The College brings together a modern academic environment, well-equipped laboratories, a dedicated faculty team and an in-house multi-specialty teaching hospital — offering students an integrated learning experience that spans theory, simulation and real patient care. Our curriculum blends classroom learning with extensive hands-on training, preparing students for confident, competent practice from day one.

Vision

To be a leading centre of nursing and allied health care education that produces graduates recognised for their competence, integrity and commitment to patient care.

Mission

- Deliver a curriculum that balances academic rigour with hands-on clinical training.
- Provide a supportive learning environment with modern infrastructure and experienced faculty.
- Instil professional ethics, teamwork and a culture of lifelong learning.
- Serve the community through our teaching hospital and outreach initiatives.
