& Pain Management

Shri Ram Murti Smarak
Institute of Medical Sciences, Bareilly

Dear Doctors & Friends,

On behalf of the organising committee, it gives me immense pleasure in inviting you to the one day lectures cum hands on workshop on Ultrasound Guided Regional Anaesthesia 2024 being held in SRMSIMS, Bareilly. This is the first USG guided workshop organised by the institution with the motive of teaching the role of ultrasound and how it can enhance our skills in providing regional anaesthesia and patient care.

The event will have lectures by reputed faculty from privileged hospitals with knowledge and expertise in this field. It is primarily aimed at postgraduate trainees and consultants wishing to develop, refresh and update skills in nerve blocks.

There will be lectures and workshop of over 4 hours hands on workshop to reinforce the theory and refine manual dexterity. We are sure that this will be excellent opportunity for all delegates to empower themselves with new knowledge and practices in various nerve blocks. We are looking forward to meet and greet you here at SRMSIMS Bareilly.
