Shri Ram Murti Smarak College of Engineering and Technology along with college's Tyro club organised a two-day cultural fest, Zest 2017 and national-level sports fest, Aamod 2017. The theme for this year's fest was rivera - reliving the era with grandeur.

Dev Murti, Chairman, SRMS, inaugurated the fest. Also present were Aditya Murti, SRMS, Trust Administrator and Ankit Patel, President of Tyro Club. The fest kicked off with a group dance and was followed by several cultural events, including movie spoofs, solo dances, western solo performances, street play, duet dances, movie quizzes and karaoke, among other activities.

Over 1,500 students from 15 different engineering institutes of Bareilly Mathura, Ghaziabad, Moradabad, Greater Noida, Noida, Gurugram and Meerut participated in the sports fest. There were a series of sporting events, including games of cricket, badminton (boys and girls) basketball, football, volleyball (boys and girls), table tennis (boys and girls), 100-meters, 200-meters, 400-meters races, short put, long jump and high jump.

Avantika, a college student, said, "I enjoyed the fashion show and street plays. While the fashion show was replete with students donning bright and colourful attire, the street plays emphasized on everyday problems."

Abhishek, who participated in several cultural and sports activities, said, "The fest provided us a platform to showcase our talent and helped us develop a spirit of sportsmanship while bonding with other students."

Another student Ashutosh said, "The fest was an exciting mix of different sports including table tennis, chess, kho-kho, basketball and other sports. Back-to-back dance performances by different colleges added to the whole experience."
